

2009 Workshop: A Decade of Partnership and Innovation

Local Employment Dynamics

All About Jobs

Dear LED Data User:

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the 2009 Local Employment Dynamics (LED) Partnership Workshop.

The workshop will be hosted by the Brookings Institution on Thursday, March 5, 2009, and Friday, March 6, 2009. The workshop is scheduled to begin on March 5 at 8:30 a.m. and end on March 6, at 1:00 p.m. The Brookings Institution is located at 1775 Massachusetts Avenue, NW Washington, DC. It is easily accessible by Metro Red Line to Dupont Circle and is a short walk from our conference hotel.

This not-to-be-missed workshop will celebrate the 10th Anniversary of the LED program. It will bring state labor market information liaisons together with LED project researchers and others to exchange ideas, review last year's activities and plan for 2009 and beyond.

This year's workshop will highlight innovative uses of LED, including two presentations selected through a call for proposals sent out earlier this year. Parties wishing to highlight their own innovative use of LED data are encouraged to submit a poster to the poster session (more details available at http://lehd.did.census.gov/led/doc/LED_Call_for_Proposals_Final.pdf).

A summary of the workshop agenda is posted on the Census Bureau website at <http://lehd.did.census.gov/led/> under "What's New." A more detailed agenda will be posted as additional information becomes available.

To register for the workshop you must complete the form located at <http://www.zoomerang.com/Survey/survey-intro.zgi?p=WEB228NNZ4KQTU>.

If you have any questions about the meeting, please call Tammy Coxen at (734) 769-2900, or email tcxen@skilledwork.org.

Sincerely,
